

Lucidity Group Announces Acquisition Of USA Harness

Lucidity Group has acquired USA Harness – an US-based vehicle wiring harness company on the 7th of Jan., 2020.

USA Harness is located in Winnsboro, Texas, where an experienced workforce designs, manufactures and supports premium, custom electrical wiring harness for commercial vehicles.

In addition to the operation units in Taiwan and Australia, Lucidity Group now offers further advanced services with the newest integration on lighting solutions and wiring harness. The acquisition of USA Harness will create more comprehensive resources to strengthen our physical presence across the North and South of America, and to facilitate the worldwide cooperation in a broader range of business sectors.
